

Crisis Pregnancy Centers (CPCs) Are NOT Medical Facilities

However, CPCs Funded By Georgia's CPC Grant Program
Are Presenting Themselves As Clinics.

CPCs are also known as: anti-abortion centers, fake clinics, and pregnancy resource centers.

CPCs are religious non-profit organizations that aim to divert people from having abortions.
They also oppose contraception and comprehensive sex education.

Received State Grant Funding As:	Offer State-Funded Services As:	City
Beacon of Hope	Women's Clinic of Atlanta	Johns Creek, Decatur
Caring Solutions of Central GA	Core Healthcare of Central Georgia	Macon, Warner Robins
Bartow Family Resources	BFR Medical	Cartersville
Gwinnett Pregnancy Resource Center	Obria Medical Clinic	Lawrenceville
Hope Center, Inc.	Options Medical Clinic	Woodstock
Pregnant Choices	Pregnant Choices Medical Clinic	Evans
Rachel's House Pregnancy Resource Center	First Choice Georgia Pregnancy Clinic	Vidalia
Sav-A-Life Dublin	ABC Women's Clinic	Dublin

Although CPCs may offer some limited health services, they are not medical clinics, and are not regulated as clinics.

CPCs frequently provide inaccurate health information, and do not adhere to medical or ethical practice standards.

Public health and medical organizations warn that CPCs pose risk to individual, family, and public health.